

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This anti-Kerry documentary over the public airways is, in my opinion, a clear abrogation of that obligation.

I urge the FCC to use every tool at its disposal to stop this clear 'non-news' broadcast. In addition to this email, I shall be contacting the FCC at its toll free telephone number to express my concern. Thank you very much.
